ONE REAL HOT-TIME

WHEN WE ALL MEET OVER THERE

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

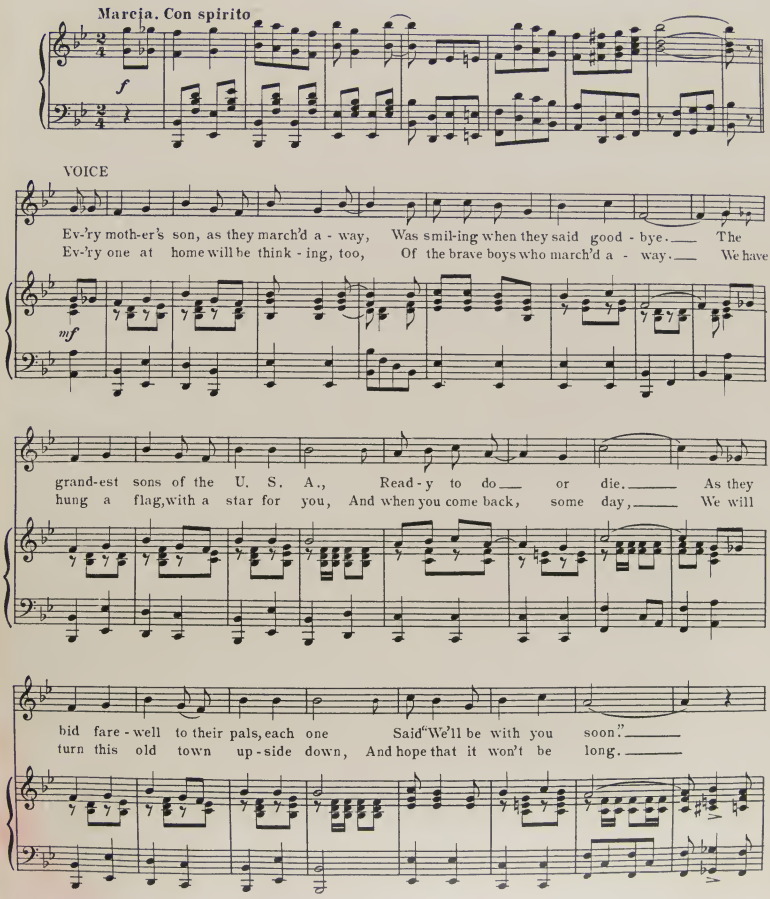
CLARENCE R. JONES

COMPOSER OF "HAWAIIAN BLUES"

FINN, JONES & KEEHER
PUBLISHERS ALBANY N.Y.

ONE REAL HOT TIME

CLARENCE R. JONES
Composer of "Hawaiian Blues"



Marcia. Con spirito
f VOICE
Ev-'ry moth-er's son, as they march'd a - way, Was smil-ing when they said good - bye. The Ev-'ry one at home will be think - ing, too, Of the brave boys who march'd a - way. We have mf
grand-est sons of the U. S. A., Read-y to do or die. As they hung a flag, with a star for you, And when you come back, some day, We will bid fare - well to their pals, each one Said "We'll be with you soon."
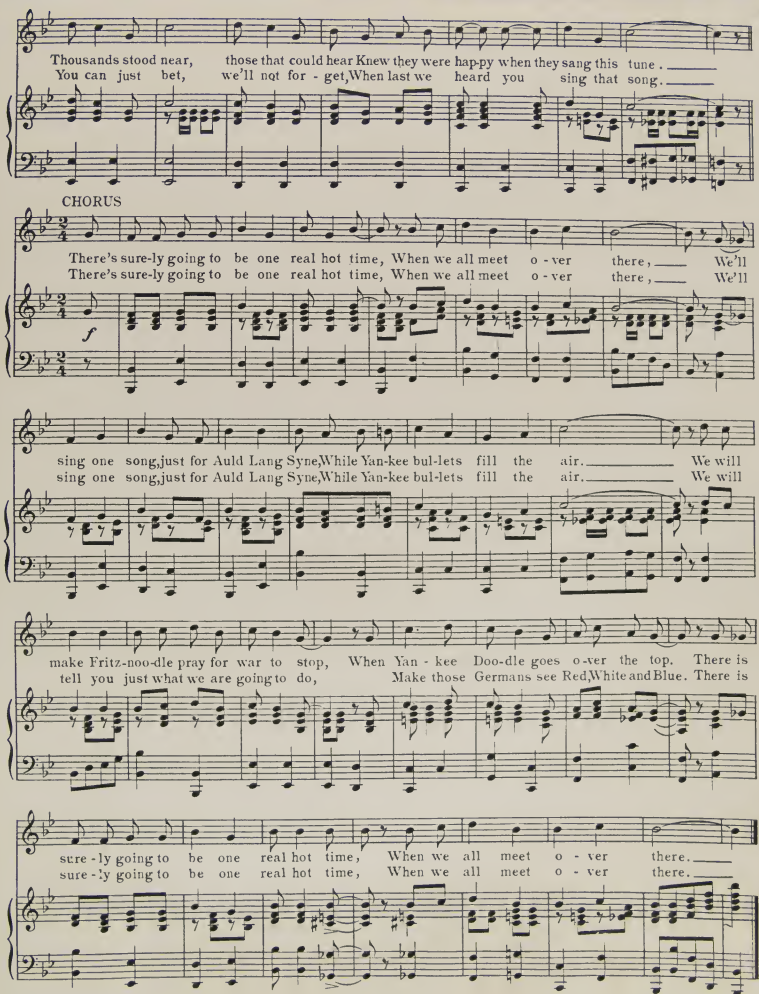
turn this old town up - side down, And hope that it won't be long.

Copyright MCMXVIII by Clarence R. Jones



Thousands stood near, those that could hear Knew they were hap-py when they sang this tune.
You can just bet, we'll not for - get, When last we heard you sing that song.
CHORUS
There's sure-ly going to be one real hot time, When we all meet o - ver there, We'll There's sure-ly going to be one real hot time, When we all meet o - ver there, We'll
f sing one song, just for Auld Lang Syne, While Yan-kee bul-lets fill the air. We will sing one song, just for Auld Lang Syne, While Yan-kee bul-lets fill the air. We will make Fritz-noo-dle pray for war to stop, When Yan - kee Doo-dle goes o-ver the top. There is tell you just what we are going to do, Make those Germans see Red, White and Blue. There is sure - ly going to be one real hot time, When we all meet o - ver there.
sure - ly going to be one real hot time, When we all meet o - ver there.

TRY THESE ON YOUR PIANO

A REAL HAWAIIAN MELODY

"HAWAIIAN BLUES"

Words and Music by
CLARENCE R. JONES

You Haven't Heard Any Real Hawaiian Music Until You Have Heard This Song.

When in the Cabaret Ask To Have These Songs Sung and Played.

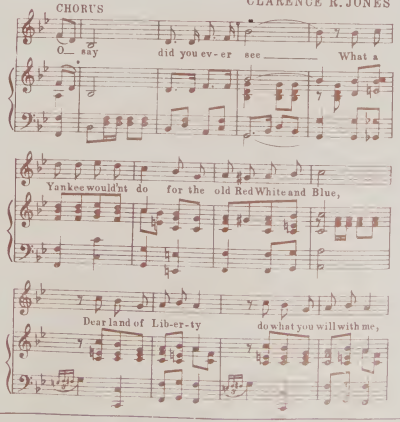
The greatest song of loyality ever written. A copy of this song should be in every American home. The song the soldiers love to sing.

A SON OF THE U. S. A.

Words and Music by
CLARENCE R. JONES

Ask any Orchestra Leader to play these Songs for You, They will be Pleased to.

ORCHESTRATIONS, TEN PARTS and PIANO, TWENTY CENTS.



CHORUS
O say did you ev-er see What a Yankee wouldn't do for the old Red White and Blue,
Dear land of Lib-er-ty do what you will with me,

You will sing these eventually.

Be one of the first to sing the New Live Hits.

Each one a good dance number.

Ask for them!
DEMAND THEM!

Complete Copies of these Songs are on Sale at all First Class Music Counters. Your Singing Teacher and Every Music Dealer. If He Cannot Supply Send Fifteen Cents for Any Single Song with Your Music Dealer's Address to

FINN, JONES and KEEHER, Music Publishers, Albany, N. Y.